

Special Circumstance Appeal – Dependent

Academic Year 2024-2025

According to federal laws and regulations, a family’s 2022 income is used to assess financial need for the 2024-2025 academic year. This appeal should be used by dependent students and their parents whose financial situation has changed and 2022 tax information does not accurately reflect the family’s current financial condition.

To maximize your financial aid eligibility, your appeal should be submitted at least two weeks prior to the end of the term in which you are seeking an adjustment. Appeals submitted within two weeks of the end of term will be reviewed, but financial aid funds may be limited or no longer available.

Before a request for special consideration will be reviewed by UMC, the student must complete the FAFSA using 2022 tax information. After submitting the FAFSA, you may then complete this application for review of your special circumstances.
